

Excursions to do...:

1st attraction – Walking around: Lucerne is pretty small so all sightseeing points: Wooden bridges, Jesuit Church, Lion Monument, Hofkirche St. Leodegar Lucerne Culture and Congress, Kunstmuseum and so on are mostly located around the city centre and within walking distance from the Château Gütsch.

2nd attraction – Mountain Excursion: There are two mountains to visit close by (Pilatus & Rigi). For mount Pilatus we can provide you the tickets for a trip which includes (bus, panorama gondolas, aerial cableway, the world's steepest cogwheel and boat) from Lucerne to the mountain and back. Perfect destination for outdoor activities.

The cogwheel railway operates from beginning/mid- May to 18 November 2018.

3rd attraction – Rigi mountain open all year you can go also with a boat and the oldest cable car way in Europe. Perfect destination if you like Hiking outdoors.

You can get the tickets at the Reception Château Gütsch.

4th attraction – Titlis mountain already a little farther but easily accessible by a direct train from Luzern. On top of Titlis you have the possibility to see glacier ice through the whole year.

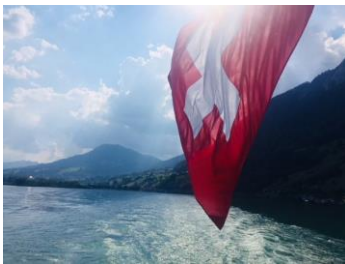

5th attraction – Museums: We can advise you to go and visit the “Museum of transportation” is the biggest museum of transport in Europe, and there are several activities and games to do inside, and a part of the museum is about chocolate. Another museum would be the Sammlung Rosengart it is possible to see the Picasso collection of 19th- & 20th-century. ❄️☀️

For music lovers not too far from the Center of Lucerne there is Richard Wagner Museum where he lived for six years. ☀️

Glacier Garden of Lucerne Local history museum with ice age glacier exhibits, 19th-century mirror maze & leafy garden. ❄️☀️

6th attraction – Lake Lucerne: There are many opportunities for a boat ride, paddleboat or just to have a nice walk along the lake side. There are several excursions available to do by boat, starting from the tourist one to culinary ships, with the possibility of having breakfast or a candlelight dinner. Ask our reception team for more details. ❄️☀️
